7. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

Upon consultation with appropriate officials of the Government of the Commonwealth of Dominica (hereinafter "GCD"), registrant will propose methods of communicating with appropriate U.S. and/or Canadian executive and legislative officials to achieve desired assistance, particularly with respect to the economic development of the GCD. Registrant will arrange and participate in meetings as advisable and will accompany and advise representatives of GCD at such meetings as it is appropriate for such representatives to attend.

8. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

It is expected that the lobbying activities will be restricted to arranging for, and meeting with, representatives of various executive and legislative departments, including in particular, Agriculture, Treasury, and State, with and without representatives of the foreign principal, as the circumstances might dictate. It is possible, however, that similar meetings with Members of Congress might also be arranged.

9. Describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose.

It is contemplated that registrant will be attempting, on behalf of the GCD, to encourage the U.S. and/or Canadian governments, as well as various international financial institutions, to make development and other grants and/or loans to the GCD. Some of these latter attempts may not involve the U.S. at all, but may involve the United Nations and related international financial institutions. To the extent necessary, the efforts with respect to U.S. and/or Canadian aid may also encompass relations with members of the legislative branch, whenever departmental approvals of assistance to the GCD may require congressional approval as well. Virtually all of this assistance will be through meetings and the presentation of materials and information on behalf of the foreign principal.

Exhibit B to Registration Statement of Carlington Sales Canada Corporation

7. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

With respect to lobbying: Upon consultation with appropriate officials of the Government of the Republic of Armenia (hereinafter "GOA"), registrant will propose methods of communicating with appropriate U.S., Canadian, and/or European executive and legislative officials to achieve desired assistance, particularly with respect to agriculture and mining. Registrant will arrange and participate in meetings as advisable and will accompany and advise representatives of GOA at such meetings as it is appropriate for such representatives to attend.

With respect to public relations: Upon consultation with appropriate GOA officials, registrant will, to the extent desired by GOA, assist in the establishment of an information office and the preparation of periodical press releases and informational material. As these activities have not begun, the precise nature of the operations is unknown. As and when such activities begin, registrant will provide supplemental information.

8. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

It is expected that the lobbying activities will be restricted to arranging for, and meeting with, representatives of various executive departments, including in particular, Agriculture, Treasury, and State, with and without representatives of the foreign principal, as the circumstances might dictate. It is possible, however, that similar meetings with Members of Congress might also be arranged.

With respect to public relations activities, these have not yet commenced, but are expected to encompass traditional information office activities, including the preparation and dissemination of press releases and informational packets, on a regular basis and also in connection with relevant current events. This material may be directed to the media or to government representatives, or to both. It is possible, though it is not contemplated at this time, that some of these activities will be directed at the general public.

9. Describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose.

It is contemplated that registrant will be attempting, on behalf of the GOA, to secure the best possible prices with respect to food aid, including the possibility of subsidized sales of grain and other foodstuffs to the country. Registrant will also be advising the GOA on the potential privatization of its mining industry. It is also contemplated that registrant will be attempting to encourage various international financial institutions to make development and other loans to the GOA. Some of these latter attempts may not involve the U.S. at all, but may involve the United Nations and related international financial institutions. To the extent necessary, the efforts with respect to U.S. aid may also encompass relations with members of the legislative branch, whenever departmental approvals of assistance to the GOA may require congressional approval as well. Virtually all of this assistance will be through meetings and the presentation of materials and information on behalf of the foreign principal.
